WINTER HAVEN – Winter Haven Police have made an arrest in the Wells Fargo Bank robberies that occurred on Sept. 6, 2011 and Oct. 12, 2011.

Aldofis Gibbs (B/M, DOB 11/3/56, 2423 Ave. B., SW, Winter Haven) was arrested at his home today after a DNA match came back from the FDLE lab matching Gibbs to evidence from the Sept. 6 robbery. The DNA was obtained from clothing that Gibbs discarded in a dumpster following the Sept. 6 robbery. The clothing was located approximately a block away from the bank and matched the description of what witnesses gave and what was seen in the video surveillance.

Today, officers recovered clothing, a note and other evidence linking Gibbs to the robbery on Oct. 12. As detectives were interviewing Gibbs, he confessed to both robberies.

Gibbs was transported to the Polk County Jail and charged with one count of Armed Robbery and one count of Robbery.

Gibbs' criminal history includes charges of cocaine possession with intent to sell, scheme to defraud, grand theft and probation violations.
